OFFICE OF
C. SCOTT FLETCHER
PRESIDENT

April 15, 1958

Lieutenant General C. P. Cabell, U. S. A. F.
Deputy Director
Central Intelligence Agency
2430 E Street
Washington, D. C.

Dear General Cabell:

Because of the growing interest in liberal education programs for executives, I am sending you with my compliments a copy of a new Fund for Adult Education publication entitled Toward the Liberally Educated Executive.

A selected group of presidents of business concerns and of universities and colleges to whom we recently distributed the book have reacted with an enthusiasm unprecedented in our experience. I will be very interested in having any comments you care to make.

This interest, however, is not confined to the business and educational world. We find that the men who are managing the affairs of Government, the Armed Forces, Labor and other organizations, are placing more and more emphasis on the value of continuing liberal education for adults.

Shortly, we will publish and distribute The Fund for Adult Education Annual Lectures, which were given last month at Princeton University by Dr. Arthur S. Flemming -- who is, as you know, a member of the President's Advisory Committee on Governmental Organization. I will be happy to send you a complimentary copy of Dr. Flemming's three lectures, entitled Liberal Arts and the Government of Men, when it is available. A request card is enclosed for your convenience.

Should you wish additional copies of Toward the Liberally Educated Executive for colleagues who may be interested, you may order as many as you need at our cost of 50¢ each.

I sincerely hope that you find these publications of value. Any further information or suggestions you have about programs of this nature, or any comments you may have, will be of great interest to us here at The Fund.

Sincerely,

C. Scott Fletcher
